The Novak-style low-mount sight is adjustable for windage only. The thumb safeties are ambidextrous.

We're still not impressed with this sub-$500 1911, but we feel the quality of the Armscor 1911A1 pistol is improving.

All three Armscor pistols arrived with the same 8-round magazines. By their design we suspect the mags are the well-respected Mec-Gar products.

The 1911A1 functions with a standard (short) guide rod but offers forward cocking serrations and a dovetailed front sight.
