

GUN TESTS REPORT CARD

Browning Citori XS Sporting 12 Gauge, $2597

GUN TESTS GRADE: A

Although we would have preferred extended chokes (after market versions are available), the overall handling ability, smooth shooting function and great trigger pulls earned the Browning high marks. This is a solid, dependable and fashionable over and under that is well worth the minor difference in price between the two test models.

Remington Premier Competition STS 12 Gauge, $2540

GUN TESTS GRADE: B-

A solid, smooth functioning shotgun, we were disappointed in the trigger pull and the forearm release mechanism. The five extended chokes and the hard plastic carry case are excellent features that add value to this package.
